Here are some of our favorites. 1) Pasta Pinwheel - This fabulous little grab-and-go shop is a must-visit for any Seattle food lover. We love their no-frills dining, the selection of natural-sourced, regionally-roasted organic coffee and their fabulous sausage and egg sandwiches. Open 7 days a week, summer through winter. 2) Capitol Hill Bakery - We first discovered this store while working as Seattle magazine interns. The pastries are superb, and it's always so fun to watch everyone at work as they bake. As a bonus, their coffee is delicious, and they have the best store-bought S'mores on the planet. Open Monday through Saturday from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. 4) Obsidian Coffee - This chic little shop is a natural by way of Seattle (two founders are from Portland, and the cafe was built from the bones of an old Renaissance restaurant). Open from 6 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday, with food, drinks, fireplaces, lattes and caffeine delivered to your door. 6) Niman Ranch - This is the closest you'll get to eating your own country steak anywhere in the U.S. Want to support a smaller, more sustainable producer? Visit their store and order a grass-fed steak or pork chops or 09e8f5149f
